STATEWIDE SPECIAL ELECTION
CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: Hank Gehman

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

I am opposed to this recall and the political forces behind it, which I believe are seeking power by perverting our democratic institutions. Americans must stand up against this now. If elected governor

I would assist the citizens of California in organizing themselves to FIGHT BACK NOW against the Republican right-wing who are creating chaos in California and using it as a smokescreen to pursue their true goal of total power. Our "liberal" politicians are incapable of effectively confronting this danger.

With a progressive governorship and a politically vigilant and energized citizenry, California will break its paralysis and move forward again. Help me build a ~~network~~ for REAL democracy.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: GERRY H. GOYDSHOLE

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

As your Independent Governor, I will focus on revising Proposition 13, enabling us to again have the nation's best schools, while reducing state income and other taxes. I'll restore the "California Can Do" spirit, and end California's serious fiscal, political and ethical crises.

My Mill Valley based Advice Company created FreeAdvice.com, the leading consumer legal website, and DoItYourself.com, the leading home improvement website, with innovative thinking, by working harder and smarter, and by frugally doing more with less, rather than by wasting other people's money. Those are also my prescriptions for Sacramento – innovation, hard work, and doing more with less.

After graduation from William & Mary and Columbia Law School, I served with the Army Security Agency, as a Securities and Exchange Commission prosecutor, and later as a strategic planner for MetLife, becoming President & CEO of a MetLife subsidiary. There I created a program - subsequently copied by most insurance companies - that safeguards insurance beneficiaries' dollars while paying them more interest than banks.

I completed Stanford Business School's Executive Program and serve on the USF Business School Advisory Board. I am an appointed member and former chair of a California State Bar insurance committee. I've chaired other committees on government regulation and ethics. I have never been a member of any political party and am not captive to special interests, enabling me to lead Californians so that we are not permanently penalized by a long-outdated 1978 tax base that fails to provide for us and for future generations.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: James H. Green, RN.

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

I'm a former Police Officer who now works as a Firefighter Paramedic and an Emergency Department Nurse. I have a degree in Economics and I speak Spanish and French. I've spent my adult life talking, negotiating, and solving problems with people. Being Governor is not about knowing everything, it's about doing your homework, coming prepared, surrounding yourself with the best people and doing what's right.

I'm not beholden to any special interest groups so my decisions will be based on facts and the merits of an argument, not the payback demands of a lobbyist. My focus is on the next generation, not the next election.

I support; Abortion rights, Campaign finance reform, Civil rights, Same sex marriage, Domestic partnership rights, Early childcare, Safe, quality schools, Help for single parents, A strong environmental policy with no additional off shore oil drilling and reduced auto emissions, Consumer protection and privacy laws, Reforming State health care agencies, Addressing the nursing shortage, Improving mental health care, Public-Private partnerships to create affordable health insurance, Reforming Prop 13's Commercial Property taxation rules, Being more business friendly, Revamping Workmans Compensation, Reducing job flight out of state, Holding down costs while we repair the State budget.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: Garrett Gruener

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

The Golden State is in an economic tailspin. Hundreds of thousands of jobs have been lost, and we're swimming in debt.

The economic prosperity of a few years ago is gone - wrecked by the national recession, worsened by special interest politicians who don't know a thing about creating jobs or balancing budgets.

I'm an innovator and an entrepreneur. I've helped create thousands of jobs, helped balance multi-million dollar private sector budgets, and poured nearly a billion dollars back into our economy. I'm the only candidate with the job creating experience to get the economy moving, create good paying jobs, give our children a world class education, guard against offshore drilling and make health care universally affordable.

Restoring the California Dream means creating jobs. Here's how I'll do it:
Spur investment in world class technology and computer based curriculum in our schools.
"Green technology" to reduce energy consumption and create a new industry for California.
Biotechnology investment to cure disease and create high paying jobs.

I call it the Action Plan to Restore the California Dream. For details visit:
www.GruenerforGovernor.com

I'm a product of the California Dream. I attended public schools and earned degrees from UC San Diego and UC Berkeley. Thanks to public investment in the Internet, I created jobs and started successful companies like Ask Jeeves.

Today the California Dream is in danger. I'm running for Governor because together we can get our economy moving and Restore the California Dream for all.
